Stimulus Check

WHO IS ELIGIBLE ?

Eligibility

US Citizens and Resident Aliens

- Have a valid SSN
- Are not claimed as a dependent

Income Criteria:

- Single: $75,000 or less
- Head of Household: $112,500 or less
- Married: $150,000 or less

Stimulus Check

HOW MUCH AM I ELIGIBLE FOR?

If you are eligible, you are entitled to the following

Single and HOH : $1,200	Married : $2,400	Qualifying child 17 and under: $500 per child (to tax filer)
-----------------------------	-------------------	--

If you make more than those income levels, you are still entitled to a portion of the Stimulus.

Your payment will be reduced by $5 for every $100 you go over those limits

Amount of the check

Stimulus Check

HOW DO I GET MY CHECK ?

Most Americans will not have to do anything. IRS will use the information from your last two tax years.

The IRS has released a new online tool called Get My Payment, which will also enable you to see the status of your stimulus check and you may be able to enter your banking info to get a direct deposit. <https://www.irs.gov/coronavirus/get-my-payment>

If you are a non-filer because you are not legally required to file, you can use the following link to allow the IRS to allocate you your money

BE WARY OF SCAMS

Receiving the check

Co Op Capital

- Low-interest loans
- Helps you plan your payments
- The loan is funded in a “non-traditional” sense. They use trusted community relationships to determine eligibility instead of the traditional 5 C’s of credit
- Ideal for individuals who are looking to start a project or keep their current business going
- <https://www.nusendafoundation.org/partner-programs/co-op-capital>

Technology

- Laptops
 - The University is allowing students to check out laptops on need-based basis. Preference is given to students who are Pell eligible.
 - Dane Smith is still operating its computer lab.
- Wi-Fi
 - The University is still operating its network.
 - On campus students who had to move off campus received a stipend to help with technology costs.
 - The city of ABQ is offering free Wi-Fi Hotspots “COAFreewireless”
 - Comcast and Century Link are offering deals to new customers and increasing speeds of current customers.

Bills

- Utility Companies are not cutting off service due to no payment.
- Many motor insurance companies are issuing refunds on premiums. If you haven't received it or are curious if you are eligible, call you car insurance company.
- The New Mexico State Supreme Court ordered a temporary halt on most evictions.
 - This will only be for non payments.
 - This does not mean that your landlord won't evict you. It just means a judge will hear your case and if they believe it fits the guidelines, they will not legally enforce the evictions.
 - New Mexico Legal Aid will offer free or reduced legal services to those in need during this time. (<https://www.newmexicolegalaid.org/>)
- Cares ACT signed into Federal law allows homeowners to delay mortgage payments.
- Be careful! As of now, there is no concrete plans for bill forgiveness. When this is all over, the full amount you owe may become due.

Food

- The Lobo Food pantry
 - Mondays from 1:30-3:30p
 - Walk up or drive up only
 - University Advisement & Enrichment Center Parking Lot
